The Real Brokerage Inc. Announces Rebrand of Expetitle, Inc. to The Real Title

Tech-driven brokerage provides unequalled search-to-close experience for homebuyers and realtors

TORONTO, NEW YORK AND MIAMI - April 20, 2022 /PRNewswire -- The Real Brokerage Inc. ("Real" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: REAX) (TSXV: REAX), an international, technology-powered real estate brokerage, today announced that its wholly-owned subsidiary, Expetitle, Inc. ("Expetitle"), has been renamed as The Real Title Inc. Real acquired Expetitle in January 2022, creating an enhanced technology-driven experience from search to close for realtors and their customers.

The Real Title simplifies the paper-intensive and time-intensive title and escrow process, reducing errors and saving time. Tools such as title orders and tracking, title information, contacts and document storage that were a part of the original Expetitle app will now be integrated into Real's app. Sean Daly will remain CEO of The Real Title.

"Expetitle has been able to integrate into Real incredibly quickly," said Daly. "Since the acquisition, we have been embraced by the Real team and we are fully supported as we work to align our technology with their ecosystem. We are on track to be fully integrated with Real in a few short months and look forward to shaping the future of real estate together."

"Sean and the Expetitle team have proven to be a great addition to the Real family," said Real's Chairman and CEO Tamir Poleg. "Having Expetitle as part of Real has accelerated our efforts towards creating a much more convenient, transparent and accelerated home buying experience. Having the company under the Real name will strengthen our brand and our position as a leader in real estate."
